R&E Update

Reichard & Escalera LLC Ranked in Chambers Latin America 2017

Reichard & Escalera LLC is proud to, once again, receive a recognition from Chambers and Partners in its 2017 Latin America edition.

Our Dispute Resolutions and Tax Practice Groups received rankings of Band 2 and Band 3, respectively. Reviewers emphasized our Dispute Resolutions Group's particular experience in litigation related to regulated markets and constitutional law and our Tax Group's ability to assist local and international entities with tax aspects of corporate matters including spin-offs and restructurings, as well as tax structuring for M&A transactions.

Individually, Rafael Escalera, Head of Litigation, was ranked in Band I and singled out as "a spectacular litigator with a great mind and strong presence in the courts." While Carlos E. Serrano, Head of Tax was also ranked in Band I and described as an "excellent tax lawyer" by sources who recognize his longstanding involvement in this sphere.

Lastly, Alba I. Joubert Pereira was recognized by peers for her "good technical knowledge" in tax matters and Sylmarie Arizmendi highlighted for recently joining our Litigation Group.

Rankings in Chambers Latin America are based on confidential in-depth interviews with key in-house counsel and leading private practice lawyers. All editorial comments about individual lawyers, as well as the rankings, are independent and objective.
